

Metropolitan Museum of Art Tour: Jews and Art History ~ Jewish History through Art

Description: By delving into the Western Art Galleries of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, we will gain a deeper understanding of how Jews were viewed throughout the centuries by their European neighbors and how individual Jews contributed to the development of Western Art.

Date: Sunday, May 22, 2016
Time: 1 PM
Duration: Approximately 90 minutes

Leader: Eitan Kastner teaches history, Jewish history, and art history at the Frisch School in Paramus, New Jersey. He earned his MA in religious history at the University of Chicago and is a licensed New York City Sightseeing Guide.

Location: The Metropolitan Museum of Art
5th Ave and 82nd St. Enter through the main entrance up the grand staircase. We will meet near the benches on the south side of the Great Hall. The leader will be wearing a brown cowboy hat, so you can recognize him easily.

Directions: Take the downtown 1 train from the 116th St station to the 86th St station. From 86th street take the eastbound Cross-town bus to 5th Ave.

Limit: Tour is limited to 30 participants

Cost: $22/person